

Nevada Consumer Health Data Privacy Policy

Last Updated on November 13, 2025

INTRODUCTION –HOW THIS POLICY APPLIES TO YOU

This Nevada Consumer Health Data Privacy Policy (“NV Health Policy” and “Policy”) applies to Washington Consumer Health Data that Arrowhead Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Arrowhead”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) collects about Nevada state residents (“Nevada Consumers”) that may be subject to Nevada law, NRS Chapter 603A, pertaining to consumer health data (“Nevada Consumer Health Data Act”).

“Consumer Health Data” as used in this Policy means personal information that is linked or reasonably linkable to a Nevada Consumer that Arrowhead uses to identify that individual’s past, present, or future physical or mental health status. This Policy does not apply to information we may collect about you that is exempt from the Nevada Consumer Health Data Act which includes, without limitation, the following:

- Information that is “protected health information” or “PHI” under HIPAA, which includes health information
- Personal information intermingled with PHI that is subject to HIPAA that we maintain in our capacity as a health care provider under HIPAA
- Personal information collected in connection with our recruitment and pre-screening of clinical trial participants and in the operation of clinical trials and related research efforts, including the provision of expanded access to drugs that are the subject of clinical trials
- Personal information used only for public health activities and purposes
- Information that has been deidentified in accordance with HIPAA deidentification requirements
- Publicly available information
- Information collected about Nevada Consumers when acting in their capacity as employees, independent contractors, job applicants, or health care providers

When we refer to “Consumer Health Data” in this Policy, it does not include any of the categories of personal information listed above.

CONSUMER HEALTH DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

We collect the following categories of Consumer Health Data:

- Information about health-related conditions, diseases, or diagnoses
- Information about your use or purchase of prescription medications
- Any inferences that constitute information about a disease or diagnosis that are derived or extrapolated from non-health information
- Other information that may be used to identify your health condition

PURPOSES FOR COLLECTION OF CONSUMER HEALTH DATA

We collect and use Consumer Health Data for the following purposes:

- To provide information about Arrowhead products
- To provide educational information about certain diseases or health conditions
- To provide patient support programs and patient access programs
- To assess and analyze the effectiveness of our patient support and access programs

- So that we can directly advertise and market to you and measure the effectiveness of our advertisements and marketing
- To monitor and improve our website and for internal business analysis
- To comply with the law and our legal obligations, to respond to legal process and related legal proceedings
- To prevent fraud and provide security, including preventing activities that violate our Terms of Service or that are illegal, and to protect our rights and the rights and safety of our users and others

SOURCES OF CONSUMER HEALTH DATA

We collect Consumer Health Data from users of our Websites; consumers, including those who participate in patient access or support programs and who volunteer to provide testimonials; and third parties, including data brokers.

CONSUMER HEALTH DATA WE MAY SHARE WITH THIRD PARTIES

We may share Consumer Health Data as required or permitted by law to comply with a subpoena or similar legal process or government request, or when we believe in good faith that disclosure is legally required or otherwise necessary to protect our rights and property or the rights, property or safety of others, including to law enforcement agencies, and judicial and regulatory authorities, to private attorneys who issue subpoenas or otherwise serve us with legal process and, to the extent required, the individuals or entities they represent

CONSUMER RIGHTS UNDER NEVADA CONSUMER HEALTH DATA ACT AND HOW TO EXERCISE THEM

Nevada Consumers as defined above have the following rights with respect to their Consumer Health Data:

Right to Know: The right to confirm whether we are collecting, sharing, or selling their Consumer Health Data

Right to Know Third Parties: The right to obtain a list of all third parties with whom we have shared Consumer Health Data to the extent permissible under the law

Right to Delete: The right to request that we delete their Consumer Health Data

Additionally, to the extent consent has been obtained to collect or share Consumer Health Data, the right to withdraw consent.

To exercise these rights, please contact us at dpo@arrowheadpharma.com. We may require additional information to authenticate that you made the request(s). If we are unable to authenticate the request(s) using commercially reasonable efforts and asking for additional information, we will not be able to comply with the request.

We will respond to deletion requests within 30 days from when we receive your request and will respond to other requests within 45 days. In some circumstances, we may need additional time to process your request. If we expect your request is going to take us longer than normal to fulfill, we will let you know.

If your request is denied, you may appeal that decision as specified in our letter or denial. We will process and respond to your appeal within the time permitted by law.
